This year 500 volunteers have signed up to help – but there is still room for a few more. Please pray and approach directly any who you think might be suitable to help. There's probably a role ideally suited to them. For many volunteers, this is one of the highlights of their year – they too return home refreshed, inspired and equipped to serve in their local churches and communities. For further details, email volunteer@keswickministries.org or look at <https://www.keswickministries.org/volunteer>
